

PRESS RELEASE

ELICA S.P.A. SELLS 2.68% OF TREASURY SHARES TO INVESCO PERPETUAL

Fabriano, July 15, 2013 – Elica S.p.A. - following the authorisation granted by the Board of Directors on June 19, 2013 to permit the sale of treasury shares - announces the sale of 1,700,000 shares, comprising 2.68% of the share capital, to INVESCO PERPETUAL, a fund with a dedicated vehicle which targets European small/mid-cap companies, at a price of Euro 1.134 per share.

The operation underlines the confidence that INVESCO PERPETUAL has in the future prospects of the Elica Group and allows a leading international institutional investor to establish a significant position in the Company.

Following the operation, Elica S.p.A. holds 1,275,498 treasury shares.

The Elica Group has been present in the cooker hood market since the 1970s, is chaired by Francesco Casoli and led by Giuseppe Perucchetti and today is the world leader in terms of units sold. It is also a European leader in the design, manufacture and sale of motors for central heating boilers. With approximately 3,000 employees and an annual output of over 17 million units, the Elica Group has nine plants, including in Italy, Poland, Mexico, Germany, India and China. With many years' experience in the sector, Elica has combined meticulous care in design, judicious choice of material and cutting edge technology guaranteeing maximum efficiency and reducing consumption making the Elica Group the prominent market figure it is today. The Group has revolutionised the traditional image of the kitchen cooker hood: it is no longer seen as simple accessory but as a design object which improves the quality of life.
