

CRISTINA SCOCCHIA is born in Sanremo, on December 4th 1973; graduated from Bocconi University with a degree in Management of International Firms. She completed a PhD in Business Administration at the University of Turin.

Ms. Scocchia started her career at Procter & Gamble where, since 1997, she held positions of increasing responsibility working on mature and emerging markets until she was appointed as Cosmetics International Operations Division leader in 2012. In 2013, she joined L'Oréal Italia S.p.A. and, since January 2014, has acted as its Chief Executive Officer. In September 2016 she was appointed also Chairman on top of Chief Executive Officer of L'Oreal Italy. In the years at the helm of the company she courageously contributed to bring L'Oréal Italy back to growth in a challenging economic environment. She also propelled the organisation forward by modernising the company, through the regrouping of the 4 divisions in Milan and the evolution on a new model of leadership. At the end of March 2017, she decided to leave the company to pursue other career interests.

Ms. Scocchia is a member of the Board of Directors of Luxottica Group, Valtur and Elica SpA.
